

Coolhurst Tennis & Squash Club

Minutes of AGM held on 16 March 2020

Chairman: Gerald Barratt
32 members present with 3 or 4 more arriving during the meeting.
There was no voting during the meeting since all voting was online.

Meeting started at 7.35 pm.

1. The Chairman welcomed members. The meeting was live on YouTube. There would be time for speeches by candidates for contested GMC roles which this year includes Treasurer, Squash Secretary, Squash member and Tennis member. The uncontested roles are Chair, Tennis Secretary, Club Secretary and Bar Secretary. Voting would be electronic & the results available the next day, as last year.
2. Minutes of the 2019 AGM - there were no queries.
3. Gerald Barratt, Chair of the Coolhurst General Management Committee, gave his report.
4. Charlie Logan, Squash Secretary, gave his report. Lucy Watling from the floor asked about doubles squash. CL replied that the matter was in hand and there was a possibility of leaving a doubles court permanently in place.
5. Jamie Morris, Tennis Secretary, gave his report.
6. Bob Taylor, Treasurer, gave his report.
7. There were no member resolutions.
8. Contested GMC posts.

Speeches were made by various candidates: Jago Nardelli (squash member), Andy Watson (squash secretary), Charlie Logan (squash Sec), Paul Harris (treasurer), Bob Taylor (treasurer), Christian Midhage (tennis member), Peter Hilton (squash member). Jamie Morris spoke on behalf of Martin Zinkin (tennis member), who was self-isolating.

There were other candidates standing who did not make speeches.

9. Appointment of auditors: GB explained the GMC would decide which level of audit was required.
10. Subscriptions rates for 2019-2020. Jamie Morris proposed no increase overall. Charlie Logan proposed that squash subscriptions be decided by the new Squash Committee and GMC.
11. Any other business.

Nigel Hutchings said he would have liked a vote on having a Club President.

The results of the voting, which were published the day after the meeting, follow these minutes.
